

PRIVATE PRACTICE WORKSHOP: SHAM CONTRACTS – EMPLOYEES vs CONTRACTORS

The AMA (ACT)'s Tony Chase (Manager of Workplace Relations and General Practice) and HWL Ebsworth's Lawyers' Scott Chapman (Partner) will be speaking at this event and addressing concerns of particular interest to Medical Practices in the ACT.

TONY CHASE joined the AMA (ACT) in 2016 and is an experienced workplace relations practitioner and has worked across both the private and public sectors. He has appeared in most Australian Industrial Tribunals representing small and medium businesses and has also worked as a workplace mediator and investigator for the Commonwealth Government.

Tony will provide a brief overview on the following topics:

- Employment Contracts
- Benefits of contracts for service
- Protecting your Practice against sham contracts

SCOTT CHAPMAN has over 27 years' experience in Health Law, advising several major health institutions, including AMA (NSW). His expertise and experience include administrative law investigations, risk management and business structures of medical practices.

Scott has been named in Best Lawyers™ Australia for Health and Aged Care, and in 2013, was selected as Lawyer of the Year for Health and Aged Care - Sydney.

Scott will provide a comprehensive presentation with the following topics:

- Drafting appropriate contracts
- The Multi-Factor Test in differentiating employment status
- Legal matters in relation to this issue

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

Practice principals, practice managers and other practice staff

WHEN: 12-1:30pm Tuesday 16 October 2018

WHERE: AMA House - 42 Macquarie Street, BARTON ACT

COST: $100 for AMA members and/or their practice staff

$200 for non-members and/or their practice staff

CONTACT: Karen Fraser at reception@ama-act.com.au

Or call our office on 6270 5410

All attendees are presented with a certificate of attendance.

PROUDLY SPONSORED BY:

