

AMA Queensland Election Priorities 2024	Labor	LNP
1 Workforce	 46,451 more health workers by 2032, including 15,875 frontline health workers by 2028	 34,200 more health workers by 2032, returning attrition rate to historical averages from the current high of over 6%
2 Training pathways	 Expansion of the GP Registrar Incentive Scheme to 2030 ($20m; $40k per trainee)	 New Queensland Academy of Health Sciences in Rockhampton to fast-track high school students into health careers
	 Continued funding for GPs to train in obstetrics and anaesthetics to increase maternity services in rural areas	 Fast-tracking trainee clinicians into paid work in hospitals to secure a pipeline of health workers
3 Leadership	 Hospital and health workers on HHS boards	 Frontline staff on HHS boards
4 Wellbeing	No public commitments	No public commitments

AMA Queensland Election Priorities 2024
5 Surgical Wait List Roundtable Action Plan	  Pipeline of 2,500 more beds to bring total number of new beds to 3,400    Target to return ramping to 28% (pre-COVID levels) 	  Real-time health data for key health metrics including number of available beds, patients waiting for treatment and busiest times at EDs    Upgrade to the latest digital hospital mapping technology to improve hospital workflows and maximise availability of hospital beds    Commitment to stop elective surgery wait list growing after first 12 months in office    Reduce ambulance ramping to below 30% by end of first term
6 Primary-tertiary integration	No public commitments	No public commitments
7 Payroll tax	  Exemption for GPs    No exemption for non-GPs or amnesty extension 	  Exemption for GPs    No exemption for non-GPs or amnesty extension

AMA Queensland Election Priorities 2024
8 Prevention	  50 state-owned GP bulk billing clinics ($365m)    Cost of living relief announcements including electricity rebates, 50c public transport fares, free state primary school lunches ($1.4b) and crisis accommodation 	  $1b for housing and infrastructure in regional Queensland    Rezoning vacant church land for social housing    Will continue Labor's energy rebates based on household need and 50c public transport fares
9 Collaborative, evidence-based practice	  Seven more satellite hospitals in regional Queensland    Making the Community Pharmacy Scope of Practice and Community Pharmacy Hormonal Contraception Pilots permanent without an evaluation    New free nurse-led clinic at the Brighton Health campus 	  25% loading for doctors in Acute Admission units to ensure hospitals are fully operational seven days a week and expanded transit lounges so patients can be discharged out of hours    An extra 9 CT and 6 MRI machines to free up hospital beds and bolster 'satellite hospital' and regional hospital services

AMA Queensland Election Priorities 2024
9 Collaborative, evidence-based practice (continued)	  Regional GP access to specialist advice with an expanded eConsultant service for regional and rural GPs to tap into specialist advice on complex patient issues, reducing referral to specialist wait lists    Rename ‘satellite hospitals’ but has matched Labor’s commitment to the facilities.
10 Digital integration	No public commitments No public commitments
11 First Nations health	  Continuing the Path to Treaty and truth-telling commission    Will repeal the Path to Treaty legislation    Promises a ‘better way forward’ for Indigenous issues but no further detail
12 Women’s health	  Up to 45 additional doctors and sonographers to deliver more antenatal scans ($20m)    Reinstating maternity services: reopening maternity services at Biloela and Cooktown Hospitals

AMA Queensland Election Priorities 2024
12 Women's health (continued)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Expanded Maternal Fetal Medicine Services in hospitals ✓ Education to better support the provision of abortion care in Queensland ✓ No changes to current decriminalised abortion and VAD laws ✓ Publicly funded IVF for people with complex medical conditions — Women's health hubs in Caboolture and Cairns 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ 'No change' to existing termination of pregnancy laws
13 Climate and sustainability	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ 50c public transport fares ($150m) – consistent with AMA Queensland Active Travel Position Statement ✓ No nuclear power ✓ Phase out coal by 2035 with 80% renewable energy ✓ Net zero by 2050, 75% emissions reduction by 2035 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ 50c public transport fares ($150m) – consistent with AMA Queensland Active Travel Position Statement ✓ No nuclear power ✗ Keep coal-fired power stations running indefinitely to ensure smooth renewable energy transition — Focused on net zero by 2050

AMA Queensland Election Priorities 2024
14 LGBTQIASB+ community	No public commitments No public commitments
15 Mental health	  $1.9b for new and expanded services, more beds and more community treatment and support for mental health and alcohol and other drugs system, including mother and baby beds, more staff, pill testing services and other local programs    Embedding specialist mental health nurses in ED triaging stations  Investing the mental health levy into new youth mental health support services with two new Step Up, Step Down services ($50m)
16 Aged and end-of-life care	No public commitments No public commitments
17 Substance-related harm	  Establishment of pill testing site at 2024 Schoolies Week on the Gold Coast    Cancellation of pill testing site at 2024 Schoolies Week on the Gold Coast  Statewide stocktake of alcohol and other drug rehabilitation services to identify where additional capacity can be funded and activated 